4-5 Student Organizations

Keio University has a rich community that revolves around over 470 official students' organizations – 68 of which are specific to SFC – across its six campuses. The Keio Arts and Culture Federation complements these with 90 organizations that encourage students to expand their cultural literacy and social awareness. With clubs encompassing countless interests, from contemporary and traditional dance and music, religion and Japanese cultural arts, to debate and philanthropy, students are guaranteed to find a community where they can make lifelong friends.

Clubs and Circles

The word “circle” is often used to refer to students clubs. “Circles” are also student clubs, but often require less of a time commitment than so-called “clubs.” To enter a club or a circle, you can either go to their information events held at the beginning of the spring semester or contact them directly by searching for their homepages / facebook pages. A list of circles can be found “SFC Guide 2019 Vol.1– Introduction to SFC.”

Sports at Keio University

The Keio University Athletics Association (<http://www.uaa.keio.ac.jp/>, Japanese language only) organizes the university's intercollegiate athletic teams, and provides them with coaching staff, medical aids and training facilities. The league includes over 40 groups. Some of them you can find in the summary below.

The Waseda-Keio Games

Keio University and Waseda University have long been friendly yet fierce rivals in academic and athletic pursuits. The Waseda-Keio baseball games in spring and fall are so popular with students, alumni and the wider public that they are broadcast on TV. Even if the games are held over weekends, if the weather is poor, or a playoff game is held to a tie, games will also take place on Mondays. In this case classes will be cancelled on that day so that the whole University can come out to support their team. Please check the University website to confirm on the class cancellation.
