3 Administrative Procedure

This chapter provides legal procedures that will need to be completed at the city/ward office. There is no need to book your visit to the office beforehand. It may take up to 1-2 hours in total.

3-1 Resident Registration

Moving-in Notification

What to Bring to Your City/Ward Office

- ☐ Residence Card
- ☐ Passport
- ☐ New Address

As soon as your new address is determined, please go visit the city/ward office. You are required to report your new address in Japan to your local city/ward office (住民登録/Jumin-toroku) by submitting a prescribed form (転入届/Tennyu-todoke) within 14 days of the moving-in date. The form is available at the city/ward office.

If you fail to give notification of your place of residence without a justifiable reason or submit a fake address, your status of residence may be revoked.

After completion of the residency process, your address will be written on the back side of the residence card.

You will be required to report your new address to the local city/ward office within 14 days every time you change your address in Japan.

Upon request, your local city/ward office will issue you a "Certificate of Resident Record 住民票/Juminhyō, that can confirm your current resident record. You might be asked to present or submit the certificate, when you are getting a mobile phone or opening a bank account. It generally costs about 300 yen (fee varies depending on areas) to have the certificate issued.

3-2 National Health Insurance

National Health Insurance (NHI)— 国民健康保険 /kokumin kenko hoken, often abbreviated as Kokuho in Japanese—is a health insurance system in Japan that allows the insured to receive medical care without financial concern when ill or injured by splitting the medical care expenses between the local or national government and the insured.

Full-time international students who will be studying in Japan for more than three months must join the NHI unless covered by an insurance plan of a family member who lives in Japan. Overseas medical insurance will not be accepted.

With the NHI, approximately 70% of your medical expenses will be covered when you receive treatment at hospitals or clinics that are NHI medical service providers (most hospitals in Japan accept NHI). You will have to pay the remaining 30% of the costs.

Please note that the National Health Insurance does not cover expenses for cosmetic surgery, orthodontics, or childbirth.

How to Enroll in National Health Insurance (NHI)

When you register your address at the city/ward office, you'll be guided to enroll in NHI.

No fee will be charged when you join. The insurance card will be sent to your home later, but a National Health Insurance Certificate can be issued on the same day upon your request.

When you receive your NHI card, check to see if there are no mistakes in the description and be sure to present it at the reception whenever you consult a doctor.

Lending your NHI card to someone else is punishable by law. Duplicated and/or expired NHI cards are invalid.

Deduction

Japanese National Health Insurance Premiums amount is determined by the city/ward office based on your income of the previous year. If the NHI recognizes that your income is below a certain amount, a reduction to your insurance premiums will be applied (scholarships are not considered as income).

form

Please pick up an Income Declaration for National Health Insurance form (国民健康保険料申告書 "kokumin kenko hokenryo shinkokusho") at the NHI counter, fill it out, and submit it with the application for NHI.

If you do not submit your declaration form, you may be charged with the highest monthly insurance premiums.

From the following year, the form will be sent to your home address.

Please note that insurance tax (premium) must be paid starting from the month you became an eligible resident in that city/ward, not from the month you are notified of enrollment. Keep in mind that you will be required to bear full medical expenses during the time you are not enrolled in NHI. For this reason, we recommend that you purchase foreign or travel health insurance while you are still in your country for the first few days after your arrival.

For more information, please contact the NHI counter at your local city/ward office.
